The New Delano Barn

The completion of the new barn on the H. L. Delano farm at the foot of Elmore Mountain is worthy of special mention. The event was celebrated recently by a barn dance, attended by several hundred people, including many from Morrisville and surrounding places as well as neighbors and friends. The structure is one of the most complete and modern in this vicinity and is a great improvement to the old home place where "Herb" has spent practically his whole life. But the most interesting feature is the fact that the three boys, Lewis, Howard and Nat, assisted by H. L. Delano, also by Charles Silloway for one week, did all of the work from the foundation to the cupola. After the plans arrived last winter the long evenings were spent by the boys and Mr. and Mrs. Delano in adapting them to their needs and work on the cement foundation was commenced in May and the work was practically completed on July 10. The barn is 100 feet by 36 feet and a center tie-up in the basement will accommodate 60 head of cattle. The hay lofts and bays have a capacity of 125 tons of hay.

Buried in Worcester

The body of Glenn Hayford, 41 years old, was brought to Worcester Tuesday afternoon, where the funeral was held at two o'clock. The Rev. W. T. Best officiated. There were many friends present.

ON THE GOLF LINKS

Warren Smith Wins Membership in "Hole in One Club"

Saturday last was a gala day at the golf links at Hyde Park. A delegation of "knights of the golf stick" were there from Caspian Lake and took a hand with the local players. The game was a very interesting one and notwithstanding the visitors won out there was excellent playing on both sides.

The leading feature of the match was the individual match between young Warren Smith of the Mountain View Golf Club and F. W. Kent of Samoset. Both played No. 1 on their respective teams and were all even playing from the 18th tee. Mr. Kent made a perfect shot from the tee lying on the green within a short distance of the cup for an easy 2. Young Smith played from the tee holding out in one and winning his match. Both players played excellent golf, both making 76s.

No hole on the course has ever been done in one previous to this match. The shot entitles young Smith to membership in the "Hole in One Club" and a box of Burke No. 30 golf balls.

There was the largest number yet on the grounds, fully 150 being present—a large number being visitors and players from "Samoset." Many pleasant things were said about the grounds and the handsome clubhouse, of which several said the grounds ranked among the best in the state. Refreshments of punch and cake were served under the direction of Mrs. Currie, Mrs. H. A. Noyes and Mrs. D. A. Scribner. It was a most enjoyable event.

Next Saturday the Barton Golf Club will be the visitors. A general invitation is extended to all to visit the grounds and witness the game.

The score of the teams is as follows:

Mountain View Country Club	Lamoille County Country Club
Warren Smith...1	F. L. Kent...0
F. A. Bagnall...1	B. W. McFarland...0
G. W. Morrow...1	A. D. Britton...0

HOW TO GET YOUR FRESH AIR KIDDIES

The Fresh Air kiddies for Morrisville and Stowe will arrive in Morrisville Tuesday morning, August 1, on the 8:52 train.

Persons who are to entertain children in their homes are requested to observe the following directions in coming to get their little guests:

Hosts living in the village of Morrisville will call at the Morrisville railroad station between 9:10 and 9:30 o'clock. Please be prompt as the children will not have had breakfast and will be hungry.

Hosts living outside the village or in adjoining towns, unless otherwise advised, will come for their children between 9:30 and 10 o'clock. Breakfast will be served to these children by the Louise M. Slocum Class of the Universalist Church. Try to be on time, however, so as not to hinder the committee by keeping them waiting for you.

Note carefully the exact time you are asked to come to the station, and then be there at that time—not before.

There will be a sufficient corps of workers to manage distributing the children without confusion if every one will do exactly as they are instructed. Members of the committee will wear green badges. When you reach the station give your name to some member of the committee, and she will find the child assigned to you. These instructions do not apply to Stowe. The children for Stowe will be distributed from there, and the Stowe committee will issue its own directions.

A Successful Birthday Party

Jerseydale, the home of Gerald I. Towne, was the scene of a very pleasant occasion on July 15 when 16 of little Everests' friends were entertained from 11:30 a. m. until 6:00 p. m., in honor of his eighth birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Refreshments of raspberry shrub, sandwiches, cookies, ice cream and cake, including a large birthday cake with eight candles, watermelon and candy were served at a table prettily decorated with red, white and blue festoons and placed on the lawn. The place cards were a picture of the host. In a few well chosen words Everest thanked his little guests for the many nice presents he received. Then the guests departed after reporting a delightful time spent on the farm with their little friend. The company was photographed during the afternoon. The trip was made in Mr. Towne's auto.

GEORGE F. EARLE - - MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

HYDE PARK CHAUTAUQUA

Hyde Park is having its annual Chautauqua festival. A very excellent program is being carried out and much interest is manifested. It opened Monday evening with "The Floyds," magicians of a high character, who gave a full program of "merriment, melody and mystery."

Tuesday afternoon the Cartwright Quartette delighted the audience with a splendid instrumental program and in the same evening they again appeared, giving another of their delightful musicals. They were followed by Rowland A. Nichols with a lecture on "The Man Worth While," and a splendid lecture it was; in fact, it was a "heart to heart talk" and full of mirth, interest and practical suggestions and he held the undivided attention of all. It is a lecture of this kind that not only interests the individual, but gives him serious thought and redounds to the benefit of the community. No mistake was made in putting Dr. Nichols on the program.

The Junior Chautauqua is under the direction of Miss Lantz, assisted by the Misses Hooker, Black and Fairbanks. Miss Lantz is an expert in her line and the little folks are having "the time of their lives" in playing games and picnicing and receiving instruction that make them better boys and girls. They have an organization, of which Master Russell Page is the mayor and Harry Grant the captain. The festival continues through Thursday and no one can afford to miss the last day, which promises to be the best, includes the Harrod Jubilee Quartette and a lecture on "Lifters and Leavers" by Dr. J. L. Thompson.

For the success of the event much credit is due the indefatigable work of the several committees and the business men of the village, all but one or two of the latter aiding in the movement.

VOTE ON VOLSTEAD ACT

The Literary Digest, that took a poll of 10,000,000 voters so accurately as to forecast the result of the last presidential election, is taking another poll of ten million voters on the three following questions: Favor strict enforcement; favor light wines and beer; favor soldiers' bonus.

Out of 207,394 ballots cast up to last week the vote stood:

For strict enforcement.....	76,597
For repeal.....	45,646
For modification to allow beer and wines.....	85,151
For bonus.....	102,978
Against bonus.....	102,370

The New England states were:

For modification.....	8,126 to 7,646
Against bonus.....	13,147 to 7,251

AIRSHIP TO BE AT LAMOILLE VALLEY FAIR

Arrangements were concluded Tuesday of this week whereby Lieut. W. E. Cleveland will be at the Lamoille Valley Fair with his new 160 horsepower airship, "Golden Eagle." Some very expert flying is thus assured.

Death of Former Townsman

On Thursday evening at eight o'clock occurred the death of Leander Lucius Laraway at his home in Watervliet after a ten days' illness from erysipelas. The funeral service was held at his late home Saturday, the Rev. George Tabor of this place officiating. The bearers were three brothers, Alex of Morrisset, Albert of Stowe, James of Concord, N. H., and a nephew, A. L. Laraway of Watervliet. Interment was made in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery, Morrisset Corners.

Leander Lucius Laraway was born in Canada 84 years ago, one of nine children born to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Laraway. He moved to Vermont with his parents when a small boy and practically his whole life had been spent in this town. Fifty-two years ago last November he was married to Phoebe Drugg, who, with an adopted daughter, Mrs. George Bassett, and four grandchildren survive. He is also survived by four brothers, the three previously mentioned and Philip Laraway of Fall River, Mass. The deceased was a Civil War veteran and had for many years been totally disabled. He was most highly esteemed in this community where most of his life was spent, and deep sympathy is extended the family in their bereavement.

HYDE PARK

W. A. Meyers and family of Burlington were in this village Tuesday. Fine weather it was for the Chautauqua; neither hot nor cold; just right.

Miss Evelyn Miller was the guest of her friend, Miss Gertrude Lilley, during the Chautauqua.

Hon. John W. Redmond and daughter, Lois, of Newport were in town a short time last Sunday.

"Peg o' My Heart" next Tuesday evening at the opera house, another one of Nellie Gill's productions. See adv. in another column.

Rev. Mr. Mercer will deliver his farewell sermon at the Congregational Church next Sunday morning.

Edward Jones' young son, Napoleon, had the misfortune to thrust a pitchfork into his right foot Monday, inflicting a severe wound.

The second dose of chloride calcium was put on the village streets Monday. The general opinion is that this is not as good for dust settling as oil.

"Deacon" Jones of Johnson, Sheriff Stevens' long-time and popular deputy, was in town Tuesday. Of course he had that famous smile with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fisk returned from their camping trip last Saturday. Their outing consisted of a trip through northern Vermont and a part of Canada.

There was a fairly good attendance at the Mercer auction last Saturday. The goods sold at a fairly good price. Some rare antique bargains were obtained.

Hyde Park village never looked prettier than it does now. The several lawns are nicely trimmed and the splendid rain of last Sunday greatly freshened them up.

A good way to brighten up the appearance of our village would be to give the several fire hydrants about the village a coat of red paint. They are decidedly rusty just now.

Miss Gertrude Patch, daughter of the late Charles Patch, and Dr. A. Howland and son, Alvai, of Adrian, Mich., were visitors at the home of Senator Page a few days this week.

Benjamin Lilley of Bakersfield, who now travels for a Boston grocery concern, was in town Monday. Ben is the youngest son of the late Henry Lilley and now resides in Bakersfield.

James T. George and Miss Gertrude Jewett of Hammon, N. J., are spending a couple of weeks at the home of James Jewett, father of the latter and brother-in-law of the former.

The Hyde Park Inn is entertaining a large number of guests this summer. Besides many transients there are at present a party of eight from Montreal, who are spending a few weeks there.

D. H. Scribner and family were visitors in Burlington last Friday. They also visited Camp Abnaki, where Master Donald had been spending a few weeks and who returned with them.

B. A. Calkins of Fort Worth, Texas, has been spending a few days in town, a guest at the home of E. G. Sherwin. While here he looked after the setting up of a monument on the Calkins lot in the village cemetery.

The golf links are a popular resort these days. Every day sees parties there from Samoset, Morrisville, Johnson and home. Said one of the visitors there last Saturday: "The finest links and the most beautiful scenery of any grounds in the state."

Mrs. Rebecca Goddard spent a few days the past week in camp at Lake Eden. While there she observed her 75th birthday anniversary and received many congratulations from her friends and an appropriate poem in honor of the event from her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stella Goddard.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marcell Conway the past week were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Densmore and son, Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Densmore and daughter, Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Barker and son, Harry, and Mrs. Effie Currier, all of Claremont, N. H., and Miss Anna Lawson of Rutland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brigham, Mrs. George Horner, Mrs. George Allen and daughter, Loretta, returned Sunday evening from an auto trip to South Royalton, Windsor and White River Junction. They spent a part of last week at the home of Mrs. Allen's brother, C. Haskins, in South Royalton.
